DELEGATES OF EMPIRE HEAD FOR OTTAWA

Optimism Prevails as British and Dominion's Delegation Board Ship

LONDON NEWSPAPERS WISH ALL GODSPEED

LONDON, July 13 (CP).—The British, South African, Indian and Rhodesian delegations to the Imperial Economic Conference at Ottawa will embark on the giant liner Empress of Britain at Southampton today, sailing for Quebec City and the Ottawa gathering.

Every newspaper in London this morning joined in wishing the delegates good speed and success on their great mission of knitting the Empire closer together in trade affairs.

Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin, chief Cabinet aide of Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, and six other British Cabinet Ministers are in the main body of the British delegation, which, with official and unofficial advisers, totals nearly a hundred.

MANY OTHERS ABOARD
N. C. Navena, South African Minister, and two other South African Cabinet Ministers; Premier J. U. Moffatt, of Rhodesia, and advisers; Sir Atul Chatterjee, noted Indian statesman, and a large group of colleagues, also board the liner for Canada.

The Australian and New Zealand delegations are now nearing Vancouver, approaching the Dominion from the other side of the world. Newfoundland's new Premier, F. C. Alderdice, and his colleagues, travel in a few days. The Irish Free State delegation is en route, and the delegation from Northern Ireland is ready.

WIDESPREAD OPTIMISM

And from British leaders and newspapers it is not a season of fulsome optimism but a thoughtful appraisal of the great opportunities of the conference that rises as the Empire's statesmen depart. The Conservative Daily Telegraph, as an instance, says that those who arranged the agenda—the Canadian Government—have formed a clear conception of the potentialities of the conference and of the obstacles to success.

The Morning Post expressed a belief that although Empire migration is not on the conference agenda, it would find its way into the discussions.

Much Gasoline Is Used at Week-End

VANCOUVER, July 12.—All cars used by the city, except on police work, will bear a four-inch identification crest, and trucks a two-inch one. This was decided by the City Council. "It is about time we did this," commented Alderman Warner Loe, "for the gasoline used by some of these cars on week-ends is surprising."

Ramsay MacDonald Vigorously Defends Lausanne Agreement

Says Britain Has No Secret Understanding With United States—Confident America Will Co-operate—Flays Churchill for Criticism of Pact

LONDON, July 12 (CP).—Debate on Lausanne in the British House of Commons revealed actual documents were signed between Great Britain, France and Italy, embodying the "gentleman's agreement," which provides the Lausanne reparations settlement does not become effective until United States revises the war debt agreements.

At the same time Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald, who drove the Lausanne Conference to its settlement eliminating the reparations annuities, declared:

"I, for one, believe there is no nation in the world more ready to lend a hand in straightening out troubles with which we are surrounded. I say that, although America never has given a pledge so far as I know, nor indicated in any way how she is prepared to meet us."

NO SECRET AGREEMENT

While the debate went on in the House, with Prime Minister MacDonald in fighting mood, the British Government denied reports that the Lausanne agreement ending German reparations was based on a secret Anglo-American understanding that United States would assist or cancel war debts.

The "gentleman's agreement" assumed such a prominent part in the debate that finally steps were taken to make it available to everyone. The Prime Minister intervened in the debate late tonight to announce the Government had no objection to publishing all Lausanne documents, including this agreement.

A little later, Sir John Simon, Foreign Secretary, announced telegrams had been sent to the other powers at the Lausanne Conference.

In Active Command During Manoeuvres

ALWAYS a sailor, H.M. the King has taken active command of the British Fleet during manoeuvres, which started Monday and conclude tomorrow. Usually the Royal Inspection is merely a matter of ceremony. His Majesty visits the fleet, tells the men they are the finest body he has ever seen, wishes them all the very best of luck, dines with high officers and goes home. This time the King raised his standard on a battleship and went to sea with his fleet. Above is a picture of His Majesty and a view of part of the British Navy taken from H.M.S. Nelson.

Michael Manson Called by Death At Bella Coola

Oldest Member of Legislature Passes—Had Long, Adventurous Career.

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID TO HIS CHARACTER

Captain Michael Manson, member of the Legislature for MacKenzie Riding, died suddenly yesterday at Bella Coola, according to a brief message received at the Parliament Buildings from that place, which was a section of his constituency he was visiting.

A native of Shetland Islands, where he was born seventy-five years ago, he was one of the best known and most popular members of the House, and news of his passing was received with deep regret by both Government and Opposition members.

He is survived by his widow, at the family home at Stag Bay, a son and six daughters. They are: Michael Wilfred, Mrs. J. W. Hurren, Mrs. W. G. Freeman, Mrs. H. Herrewig, Mrs. R. E. Kenny, Mrs. E. McKay and Mrs. F. A. Campbell. Three brothers: Lawrence, Nanaimo; William J. Haxio, and John, of Cortes Island, also survive, as does a sister in the Shetland Islands. William Manson, Provincial Government Minister, said that he had known Captain Manson, it has been said, was perhaps the best known man on the island.

HERRIOT WINS FINE VICTORY

Bitter Fights During All-Night Session Feature Debate on Bill

PARIS, July 12 (AP).—Premier Edouard Herriot won a decisive victory in the Chamber of Deputies today when the Chamber shortly before noon passed the Government Finance Bill, designed to balance the 1932 budget, by a vote of 385 to 201.

The Premier's victory came after an all-night session of the Chamber, in which there were bitter fights which threatened to destroy his majority by alienating forces of both the Left and the Right.

WITTHOLD SUPPORT

The Socialists, next to the strongest party group in the Chamber, decided to withhold their support after a Socialist amendment calling for elimination of the annual training period for reservists was voted down. Premier Herriot made it a question of confidence.

The reservists' training costs about $4,800,000 a year. Socialist orators declared this sacrifice of the French military organization could be made and its cost contributed to the cause of a balanced budget.

QUESTION OF CONFIDENCE

Declaring it a question of confidence, the Premier said the amendment would jeopardize the safety of France, and he made references to conditions "outside the frontiers" which were taken to mean Adolf Hitler's storm troops in Germany.

MRS. PUTNAM SEEKS NEW FLYING MARK

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Amelia Earhart Putnam lifted her fast, red monoplane from the municipal airport at 11:25 p.m. today, bound for Newark, N.J., in an attempt to clip more than an hour from the non-stop record set three years ago by Captain Frank Hawks. Flying the same Lockheed-Vega monoplane in which she conquered the Atlantic a few weeks ago, Mrs. Putnam expected to land in Newark in about seventeen hours.

Remonetization Of Silver Urged

CALGARY, July 12 (CP).—Remonetization of silver is urged by Colin D. Brodie, of London, England, as an aid in restoring higher commodity prices and the subsequent purchasing power of the world. He was commenting on the announcement from Ottawa that stabilization of currency would be discussed at the Imperial Conference.

Mr. Brodie is a guest of Lord Rothermere on a trip through the Dominion.

KIDD REPORT IN HANDS OF GOVERNMENT

Committee Findings Handed to Provincial Secretary Yesterday Morning

CONTENTS ARE BEING KEPT CLOSE SECRET

The Kidd committee's report on affairs in the province was placed in the hands of Hon. S. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary, at the Legislative Building here yesterday by W. J. Barrett-Lennard, secretary to the committee.

Will be printed in the report will be strictly guarded and no publication is authorized until the Government has had an opportunity of reviewing the recommendations. The committee, however, has set a time limit of six weeks in which the Government may make the report public. If it fails to do so in that time, the committee will release the report itself.

DISPUTE WITH DANES WIDENS

Norway Decides to Settle Narrow Strip in South-eastern Greenland

OSLO, Norway, July 12 (AP).—The Government decided today to occupy a strip of South-eastern Greenland, two miles wide, between latitudes 60 degrees 30 minutes and 60 degrees 40 minutes.

This suggestion, said an official statement, is a measure of defence Denmark having given police authority to its expeditions to East Greenland this year. The statement also said that in late years Danish authorities have tried to close West Greenland to foreigners and thus prevent whalers and fishermen working in the open sea from calling at Greenland ports for water.

TO TRANSFER ESKIMOS

Denmark, the statement said, is now planning to transfer Eskimos to Southeast Greenland, where Norwegians have carried on sealing along the coast since 1870, and where two Norwegian expeditions since last year have constructed about thirty houses and carried on salmon fishing and fur trapping.

NATIONAL LOTTERY FOR HIS PLATFORM

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., July 12.—Deciding to run again for President of the United States, John J. "Doc" McDevitt, who once spent a fortune on a one-night party, says he will stand on a platform calling for a national lottery to finance the Government.

When he announced the platform, McDevitt admitted he did not think his present chances are any better than they were in 1916. At that time, his nomination occurred during the height of a party he was giving in New York, financed by an unexpected legacy to which he felt heir.

Earl of Egmont Rides in Wild Cowboy Races Again

CALGARY, July 12 (CP).—The Earl of Egmont, by the way, but not forgotten any of the art of horsemanship taught by his father while living on the family Pridelands ranch. Associated with an "outfit" of neighboring ranchers, the earl swept around the stampee course at breakneck speed, following through a cloud of dust raised by a canvas-covered wagon pulled by four horses. His outfit failed to win in the first three races, but he will be at it again, dashing madly alongside the wagon, urging the galloping team to greater speed as the Laramie race, which the "outfit" won, drew to a close.

Five Injured in Head-On Collision

BARRIE, Ont., July 12.—Five persons were injured—one critically—when two automobiles collided head-on near Midhurst, four miles from here, today. Mrs. Alex. Wiseman, Mount Dennis, sustained injuries from which she may die.

IRISH IMPORTS NOW SUBJECT TO SPECIAL DUTIES IN BRITAIN

British Government Carries Out Threat to Recoup Treasury for Defaulted Land Annuities—Special Levy Will Be Twenty Per Cent Ad Valorem—Stormy Session in Dail

SENATE'S PROPOSALS REJECTED; OATH BILL WILL BE SENT BACK

LONDON, July 12 (CP).—The British Government tonight carried out its threat to levy fresh duties on goods from the Irish Free State. Coincidentally, the British Government announced considerable extensions to the general free list under the Import Duties Act, affecting specialized products for the most part.

The duties on the Irish Free State imports affect all the principal imports, but they are of 20 per cent ad valorem, while the Government's special measure passed by Parliament yesterday gave the Government power to levy up to 100 per cent ad valorem.

The Irish Free State commodities on which the new duties apply are principally livestock, poultry and game, butter, eggs and cream, bacon and pork.

There were reports the Canadian livestock trade, in particular, was already experiencing some benefit from the setback for the Irish exporters.

MANAGER OF MINE TAKEN

Sensational Turn in Nova Scotia Strike—Three Are Charged With Blasting

SYDNEY, N.S., July 12 (CP).—A strike at the mine of the Bras d'Or Coal Company at Little Bras d'Or took a sensational turn today when Royal Canadian Mounted Police arrested Angus Murphy, the mine manager; George Long, an employee, and Country Constable Peter Laffin, on charges of causing an explosion that might have endangered life and caused destruction to property.

The explosion, caused by the use of dynamite, occurred about 10 o'clock on the night of July 4, a short distance from the powder magazine of the mine.

Police intimates they had evidence the blast had been set off deliberately in an effort to discredit the miners, who have been on strike for two weeks.

The trio were taken to Sydney Mines. Murphy was released on bail bonds for $7,500. Laffin and Long were still in jail tonight.

Data for the preliminary hearing of the charges has been set for July 20.

CAUSE OF STRIKE

The strikers, numbering about a hundred, refused to work when a checkweighman, J. Doucette, was removed from the bankhead by court order.

The company officials refuse to negotiate with the men while they are idle, and the men claim they are not breaking contract because the last agreement expired May 15.

CROP OUTLOOK IS FAVORABLE

Growing Conditions Remain Satisfactory on Prairies—Early Harvest

OTTAWA, July 12 (CP).—During the past two weeks growing conditions have been satisfactory in Western Ontario and the wheat crop of the Prairie Provinces has made good progress, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports today. Crops in the Maritimes and Eastern Canada have generally improved during this period as a result of substantial rains.

Rains are still needed in some areas of the Prairies, including districts in Central and Southwestern Saskatchewan, and lack of subsoil moisture over large areas will necessitate further rains during the next few weeks, which are critical to the development of the wheat plant.

WHEAT HEADING OUT

What is heading out in all three provinces and an early harvest is anticipated in Manitoba.

The report states grasshoppers have appeared in new areas in South Alberta and some further damage is reported. In Saskatchewan and Manitoba, the cold, damp weather and rapid growth of crops has tended to restrict actual damage.

In Alberta, crops are progressing favorably, and rains have been received during the past week in areas that were suffering from drought. It is doubtful, however, if recent rains will offset crop damage already sustained in the Peace River and Grande Prairie districts. Taking the province as a whole, the outlook is favorable.

STAFF IN CHARGE

The unemployment question is one that vitally affects the province, and efforts are being made to cut down the Provincial budget in that respect, but nothing can be accomplished until the Federal Government makes known what it intends to do. Premier Tominé is pressing for an early settlement, and spent the greater part of last week interviewing the various departmental heads at Ottawa.

ST. HON. SIR JOHN GILMOUR, D.S.O.

British Minister of Agriculture, who met the Prime Minister at the Imperial Conference. He is a grandson of David Gilmour, of Quebec, in which city his mother was born.

PRINCES SHOTS AGENT

PARIS, July 12 (AP).—The Egyptian Princess, Sanyak Mansour, said to be a relative of King Fuad, today shot and slightly wounded a real estate agent named Rene Leger, then tried unsuccessfully to commit suicide.

HEALS RANGE July 12.—Handicapped by a steady downpour of rain which lasted throughout the day, ninety-eight marksmen commenced shooting at the fifty-fourth annual prize meet of the British Columbia Rifle Association here today. Victoria and Vancouver riflemen were the chief competitors, while representatives from Peniticon, Kamloops and Agassiz also attended.

MAY REMAIN FOR OTTAWA MEETING

Indications Are That Premier Tominé Will Stay at Capital for Conference Opening

It is now practically certain that Hon. Dr. S. F. Tominé, Premier of British Columbia, will remain at Ottawa until after the opening of the Imperial Economic Conference, next week. Advice received here by ministers indicate the Premier intends to see the conference opened and confer with Provincial representatives who may be in the Dominion capital at that time.

Since his arrival in Ottawa, the Premier has been in touch with a number of the Federal ministers on matters of importance to British Columbia, and many matters originating here have been sent on to him for action.

At last reports the Premier was endeavoring to secure a decision concerning unemployment relief for the province based on recommendations from the Executive Council and the Union of British Columbia Municipalities.

The unemployment question is one that vitally affects the province, and efforts are being made to cut down the Provincial budget in that respect, but nothing can be accomplished until the Federal Government makes known what it intends to do.

BETTER CONDITIONS

Conditions during the morning proved better than those which prevailed during the remainder of the day. The Westminster Corporation match, which was the first to be shot off, resulted in an eight-way tie, all having possibilities. Owing to the weather the Gelliey match was postponed until tomorrow.

Among those taking part in the meet are: Lieut.-Col. R. M. Blair, of the Seaforth Highlanders, from Vancouver, King's Prize, gold medal and gold cross winner at Bisley in 1929, who also captured the aggregate trophy of the association in 1911, 1920, 1924 and 1928; P. Bargison, who won the aggregate match in 1978 and 1887 at Glover Point Range; Brigadier-General Duff-Stuart, who first took part in the association meet forty-three years ago, and who has shot in every meet since, with the exception of time spent in the competition at Bisley; Master Gunner H. Collings and Sergeant J. H. Regan, both of whom are Bisley silver cross winners.

Captain D. R. Blair and Private J. W. Blair, both of the Seaforth, and sons of Lieutenant-Colonel Blair, are also taking part.

The meet is being efficiently handled by a staff consisting of officers of the association, including Master Gunner Collings, secretary; Captain F. R. Wright, treasurer; Quartermaster Sergeant P. E. Corby, assistant; and Sergeant H. Barker, assistant.

Union of Municipalities Dissatisfied With Provincial Plans for Relief

REID'S HEAD FIX
A safe and unexcelled relief for Headaches, Neuralgia and Rheumatic Pains

THE VANCOUVER DRUG CO., LIMITED

Under the Government's proposal the relief for an average family consisting of parents and one child would be fixed at $30 per month.

ASK ASSISTANCE

At tonight's special meeting a suggestion of Mayor David Leeming, of Victoria, was adopted and a resolution drafted and sent to Hon. W. A. Gordon, Federal Minister of Labor, requesting the Dominion Government to send an accredited representative to the province to assist the cities and municipalities in clearing up the situation said to exist between the Provincial Government and civic bodies in the matter of distribution of direct unemployment relief.

Discussing the Government's proposal to fix the relief rate at $20 for a family of three, Mayor Leeming said he had discussed the matter with Dr. Fulton, public health officer for Victoria, and the Saanich health officer. They had stated, the mayor said, that the standard of living should be lowered without affecting the health of the individual, and that the sum of $20 per month was totally inadequate for food alone. Dr. Fulton had stated that in cases of relief an additional sum of $350 per month should be allowed to pregnant and nursing mothers, in order to supply a quart of milk a day. Children under twelve years should have at least a pint of milk daily, Dr. Fulton had stated.

CHOICE OF EVILS

Confronted with the fact that increased relief might saddle posterity with larger financial obligations, Mayor Leeming declared he would rather see posterity saddled with an increased financial obligation than with an undernourished population.

The immediate handling of relief matters relevant to the resolution was put in the hands of Chairman W. Crouch, vice-president of the union, and Mayor Leeming.

For nearly six years he had adventured up and down the rugged coastline of British Columbia. He was a spectacular career.

Coming from Scotland in 1874 he established himself at Nanaimo where he worked as a carpenter's helper about the mines for a year. Later he determined to branch out for himself, and established as an Indian trader on an island near Cape Mudge. He also farmed on Cortes and Hernandez Islands. Coming from a race of hardy seafarers, he could not resist the call of the sea, and acquired the three-masted schooner Thistle and entered the sealing trade, spending one season in the Bering Sea, while he also sought furs off the mouth of the Columbia River, where he and Captain John A. Cates, now of Vancouver, nearly lost their lives when a small boat upset in the breakers. He acquired his master's certificate.

Important in many years of political history in the province and its release will be looked for by political economists and by the people of the province as a whole.

CONTENTS GUARDED

Although all ministers, who are in the Capital, were aware of the receipt of the report, none of them had any knowledge of the contents. All, however, expressed a hope that the findings would offer some solution to the many problems facing the Provincial Government, as well as other Governments of the Dominion, and all expressed willingness to adopt any recommendation that might be in the best interests of British Columbia.

Mr. Barrett-Lennard, following the presentation of the report, stated the committee had received every consideration from the Government and its work had been made easier by the co-operation of the Government and the members of the Governmental staffs in the Legislative Buildings. Mr. Barrett-Lennard said that the staffs had efficiently given all information required by the committee, and he praised the ability of the officials of the various departments of the Government.

WILL BE MISSED

Of the late Mr. Manson, Hon. J. W. Jones, Minister of Finance, said: "The Shetland Islands have contributed many of her sons to this province, but of them all there was none more sturdy, more thrifty and more honorable than Michael Manson, the late Member for Mackenzie riding. Always active in the business of the province, he passed on, leaving British Columbia the richer for the years he gave her. No one will be missed more and we shall not forget him."

SPLENDID CITIZEN

Hon. L. Howe, Provincial Secretary, said: "I feel that in the death of Mr. Manson the province has indeed lost a man who was a wonderful citizen. His passing removes from our midst one who was most loved here and in other parts of this province, and he takes with him a fine example of a citizen of British Columbia. He was indeed highly esteemed by all people and he has left something behind him that all citizens will reverence and treasure as he was a honorable citizen."

GENERAL REGRET

"It is with the deepest regret that I learn of the death of Mr. Manson," said T. D. Pattullo, Liberal Leader. "I sat with Mr. Manson in the Legislature for eight years, and during that time I knew him as a man of fine qualities. Although we were on opposite sides of the House, his liberal disposition, his ready willingness to take issue with his party, his well and to appreciate his many fine qualities. the Coast of British Columbia. He was affectionately known to all as "Mike" Manson, and from Vancouver to Bella Coola there is hardly a nook or cove where some incident of his picturesque career and recount some kindly act on his part.

For nearly six years he had adventured up and down the rugged coastline of British Columbia. He was a spectacular career.

Coming from Scotland in 1874 he established himself at Nanaimo where he worked as a carpenter's helper about the mines for a year.

Later he determined to branch out for himself, and established as an Indian trader on an island near Cape Mudge. He also farmed on Cortes and Hernandez Islands. Coming from a race of hardy seafarers, he could not resist the call of the sea, and acquired the three-masted schooner Thistle and entered the sealing trade, spending one season in the Bering Sea, while he also sought furs off the mouth of the Columbia River, where he and Captain John A. Cates, now of Vancouver, nearly lost their lives when a small boat upset in the breakers. He acquired his master's certificate.

He was first elected to the Legislature as a Conservative member supporting the McBride Government in 1909, and continued to represent Comox district until 1916, when he met defeat. He was re-elected to the House in 1924 as member for Mackenzie, one of the largest ridings in the province, extending from Gower Point to Bella Coola.

For some months he had not been feeling well, but this fact did not prevent him carrying on as usual, and he made his usual tour of inspection to Bella Coola, where he died.

It had taken the party several days to get in to the place where the old Indian asserted there was gold. On arriving at their objective it was to find that a slide had covered the place. The old Indian fell and broke his hip. His grandson cruelly proposed that they abandon the injured man. When the white brothers refused to do so, the young Indian stole all the food and ran away.

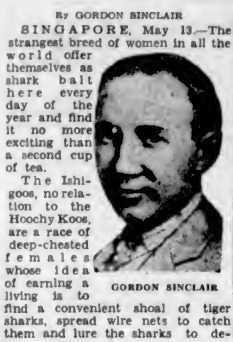

Making a hammock out of a blanket, they strung it on a pole and started to carry the injured man out. It took days. They were starving and were forced to eat roots and inner bark from trees. Then they managed to kill a bear and the meat of the animal permitted them to continue their terrible journey. At last they reached the Coast, to learn that a search party had been organized to find their bodies, for the racially Indian had told their families that they had perished.

Such are, in brief, but two of the many adventurous episodes that pioneers recall when they hear of the passing of their friend.

Sinclair Is Handed Some Pointers for Fishing for Sharks

Watches Ishigoo Women Using Themselves as Live Bait for Man-Killing Fish Off Singapore—Submarine Signaling as a Fine Art

GORDON SINCLAIR

By GORDON SINCLAIR
SINGAPORE, May 13.—The strangest breed of women in all the world offer themselves as shark bait here every day of the year and find it no more exciting than a second cup of tea.

The Ishigoo, no relation to the Hoochy Koo, are a race of deep-chested females whose idea of earning a living is to find a convenient shoal of tiger sharks, spread wire nets to catch them and lure the sharks to destruction by diving in and getting tangled up in their own meshes. Sounds fantastic, but it's just one of those things.

Perhaps nobody would have stumbled across this bit of sea-going sex appeal if the boat belonging to the leather-lunged Di-anna of the deep hadn't broken down. Something happened and the salt-sea flappers found themselves drifting around the equator with a cargo of dead sharks which started out by smelling awful and then grew worse. They drifted around there so long that Singa-pore's 400,000 Chinese were threat-ened with a famine in fresh shark soup, that compared to Shanghai was a Manchurian massacre were just fifth-rate menaces.

SHARK BAIT ON THE LOOSE

Finally the women strung their shirts, socks and skirts together and lured the sharks to de-

Receives Congratulations

Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt is shown in his study at the Executive Mansion, Albany, N.Y., surrounded by letters and telegrams congratulating him after the announcement of his election as Democratic Presidential nominee.

The Governor looked fresh and happy despite the long vigil that followed the start of the balloting.

within bellowing distance of a mechanic. As it turned out, I had declared, "but these Ishigoo are the nearest thing to fish that walk on legs. Nearer than frogs even.
They can stay under for ten minutes and their babies learn to swim long before they learn to walk.
Come on out."

We found a sampan paddled by a Japanese woman who was mostly bald and after ducking, scooped junks, hydroplanes, tugs, tramps, and every other bit of sea-going machinery we located the white tug
"Bink" with a philosophical old man of the sea sitting there smoking a pipe that was five feet long.

With that sixth sense which separates mechanics from birds like who can't even clean a spark plug, the expert fixed the engine in a half hour and the tug was immediately prepared for sea.

"I'd like to go," the hunted sharks in the Caribbean," I told the little man with the big pipe.
"See boss," he grunted. "What boss; where?"

LADY DIVES
He rang a bell and a young woman waddled up from the sooty depths. She was fat and greasy and full of roly-poly wrinkles and didn't speak a word of English. She looked Burmese to me, but they said she and all her lady divers came from Loochoo Island off Japan.

The divers came tumbling up from below as three scoops were fastened behind for the voyage.
Nobody seemed to care if I went along or not, so I stayed on board and discovered the old navigator and I were the only males. There were twenty-two thick-chested, broad-nosed women and nine babies,
all of whom were girls. In ages they ran from four months to four years.

The little girls all went down, too, but after thirty seconds or so they were back on top playing tag and having a gay old time. I could see the floats was waggling various messages, but it seemed hours before one of the women broke through the surface again. She'd fill and refill her lungs a few times and then swoop down under once more.

"ALL ALONE"
Soon one of the floats began to bob around like a jack-in-the-box, so the woman baby-diver hurried to a funny-looking combination of drum and cymbal. She started to pound the drum, and then by gentle manipulation of the cymbal sent out as creepy and spooky a series of sounds you or I are ever likely to hear. The vibrations of the drum caused other vibrations in the cymbal. The cymbal sounds were ghost-like and inhuman above water, but the old man told me they could be heard by trained ears for miles under the surface.

The signal just given was "all aloft," and it took these Dian-as of the deep just a second to be back on the barges again, giggling and chattering like a flock of baboons. One of them had the wire cable all set in her mouth and as this came up, four sharks thrashed and heaved about in spasms of despair. The diving girls had plunged under and were like human hands. They drove their fingers into the deep-sea killer and soon it was all over.

While some of the girls stayed up to skin the first shark, the others went down again. We had twelve sharks when the foreday, or whatever she was, tipped the boat. The shoal had gone somewhere else.
I wondered how she knew, but nobody else questioned her views at all and we slipped farther out to sea.

SHARKS MAKE NOISE
Every once in a while the head girl would plunge off the front of the tug and go below for two or three minutes at a stretch. She'd come up and sing out some kind of an order and the tug would go on farther.

"What's she doing?" I asked Old Man Neptune. "She listens." "Listen?" listen under water? "Yes, listen for shark. Shark make noise."

That was a new one on me, but it was all in the day's work to the women. Land was just fading out behind us when the whole squad yelped in chorus. I looked out to the side and saw the whole school of sharks bearing down on us. Dozens of them were splitting the water smooth water with that telltale black gull fin.

The tug swung in a big arc so as not to foul the barges behind, and headed straight for the sharks.
Pieces of the earlier catch were tossed into the sea and then, just as if they were jumping into a pool of minnows, the women sank their steel trapezes and plunged over.

I looked to see the man-eaters shoot in for a feast, but the whole moving mass of black fins dropped from view and all that remained were the bobbing signal cords. They bobbed up and down ferociously, and occasionally one of the women would come up, sing out some story of

NEW DIRECTOR ASSIGNED TASK

J. H. Beatty, M.P.P., to Assume Duties in Connection With Western Rotary

J. H. Beatty, M.P.P., has returned from the first meeting of the newly elected executive of Rotary International, which was held at the headquarters in Chicago. Elected a director from Canada at the Seattle convention, Mr. Beatty was called upon to attend the first meeting following the gathering.

In the arrangement of the duties for the year, attention is being given to seeing that district governors shall bring to bear upon the different clubs compliance with the aims and objects of the International body. With this in view the world body has been organized into areas over which have been appointed members of the executive who will be responsible for aiding in the work.

To Mr. Beatty has been assigned the territory west of Mississippi, covering both Canada and the United States. He will keep in touch with the governors within this area and assist them in every way in the carrying out of their duties.

CANADIANS NAMED
At the meeting various committees were named for the year. John Nelson, of Montreal, has been chosen chairman of the aims and objects committee. William de Cock Buning, of the Hague, who became so popular here during the visit of the Rotary body, is also a member of that committee.

Attention is being continued in connection with the extension of Rotary among the Latin-American peoples. The various clubs failing under that classification are to meet in conferences and assemblies during the year, which is regarded as the main committee. William de Cock

FIND EXPLOSION WAS ACCIDENTAL

Members of Coroner's Jury Return Verdict Concerning Death of Boris Derman

A verdict of accidental death was returned by a coroner's jury which yesterday morning inquired into the circumstances surrounding an exposed on July 3, on Obed Avenue which caused fatal injuries to Boris Derman and injured five other boys.
The inquest was held at McCall
Street and presided over by Dr. E. C. Hart, coroner.

William Chase, aged ten, 385 Kerr
Avenue, was the principal witness.
He was one of the boys injured. He informed the jury that he and Boris Derman and Thomas Muir, five years old, went into an old barn on Obed Avenue and while playing in the barn found an old tin can. It was labeled "100 caps." The boys, who were joined by Fred Smith, 456 Davids Street, carried the can onto the street, and it was while Boris was trying to open it by throwing it on the road it exploded.

After the explosion two of the boys ran home and Boris and Thomas Muir went to the home of R. R. F. Sewell, Saanich municipal clerk, who took them to hospital.
Others who testified at the inquest were, Miss Dorothy Dobson, 140 Cowper Avenue, who was an eyewitness; Mr. Sewell and Archibald Muir, father of one of the injured boys.

CONCERNING A TRUMP TRICK
Less than two years ago a team of four Americans journeyed to England to play a contract bridge match with the team representing one of England's strongest clubs.
That match and one that followed an aftermath resulted in a decisive victory for the American team.
This little, one of the strongest teams in England will visit America and play a return match here, probably this fall. The outcome of the match is in doubt. Englishmen are great individualists, but they have learned since the first time they played the value of systematic bidding, the value of their game which was lacking at the time of our visit.

Recently received from Mr.
Philip Brownrigg, of Maudslayi College, Oxford, England, the hand below, which is an example of extremely accurate play in order to realize the small plan contract which had been undertaken.

Agitators Start Riot in St. Louis

ST. LOUIS, July 12.—Four men were shot and more than a score injured by flying missiles yesterday when police used tear gas to disperse a crowd of 2,000 unemployed persons gathered on the City Hall lawn under auspices of the Unemployed Council of St. Louis—a Communist organization.

The Cowley School Building, valued

TOUR OF ASIA IS DESCRIBED

Mrs. H. M. Archibald Tells of French Expedition From Beirut to Peiping

An interesting account of the French expedition made across Asia from Beirut to Peiping was given before the members of the Kewanis
Club, yesterday. The speaker was
Mrs. H. M. Archibald, president of
"Alliance Francaise," who gave interesting sidelights upon the expedition through the fact that her brother was a member of it.

Her brother was with the branch of the exploratory party which started from Peiping and effected
before the members of the Kewanis
Club, yesterday. The speaker was
Mrs. H. M. Archibald, president of
"Alliance Francaise," who gave interesting sidelights upon the expedition through the fact that her
brother was a member of it.

Really through the cleverness of the mechanical staff, a wireless station was improvised in an old temple, and word reached the outside as to the conditions with the result of the straightening out of the troubles.

WELL PLANNED
The expedition had been led by Georges Marie Haardt, and was equipped with a large measure by the millionaire automobile manufacturer of France, M. Andre Citroen, and the Societe Parthe-Nather.

The expedition, equipped with tractors, was equipped with tractors made specially for the purpose. Thirty of the men left Beirut. From the latter end the expedition met with no difficulties as far as troubles with the people of the territory through which the expedition passed. There were extremes of climate, however, which were described by the speaker, which made for very severe trials.

Eight thousand miles were covered by the expedition and places were reached where white men had never before been visitors.

Four years were occupied in the preparations for the expedition, which was planned by many of the nations outside of France, including Great Britain and the United States. The consent of the various countries through which the expedition passed was obtained before starting, and only in China was there any trouble experienced. The equipment of the various cars with their electrical outfit, which made for the comfort of the party, was described by the speaker in the short time at her disposal.

Diver Finds No Evidence of External Damage to Sunken French Submarine

CHERBOURG, France, July 12 (AP).—A diver who went down to the sunken French submarine Promethee last night said that externally she did not seem to be damaged at all and she was not imbedded in the bottom.

This information led to hope that it might be easier than had been expected to refloat the ship, which sank July 7 with a loss of more than sixty lives. Naval authorities had determined to try to refloat her, although they were not any too optimistic about their chances at the outset.

The belief now is that it was inflowing water which caused the disaster rather than any mechanical fault or an explosion.

CAPT. MICHAEL MANSON, M.P.

British Columbia mourns the passing yesterday at Bella Coola of an outstanding citizen in the person of Capt. Michael Manson, M.P., one of the most popular members of the Legislative Assembly, and one of that diminishing band of real pioneers of the Coast who laid the foundations of British Columbia as we know it today.

Details of his sudden death at Bella Coola, an outpost in the great riding of MacKenzie that he represented in the Legislature so ably and for so long, are meagre. Just a brief telegram to the Acting Premier that he had passed away unexpectedly, but brief as was the message, it conveyed a great deal to those who knew Capt. Manson. It told them that "Mike" Manson, as he was known throughout the length and breadth of the West, had died as he had lived, in the service of his country.

There was no more picturesque member in the Legislature for many years than Capt. Michael Manson, and no member had achieved a greater regard in the affections of political friends and foes alike than had the veteran member for MacKenzie. Kindly of disposition, never acrimonious in debate, and always considerate of the opinions of others, he was for many years a power in legislative circles, for his views were highly regarded, and especially in respect to the natural resources of British Columbia. His quiet humor and homely common sense often quieted quicker tempers in debate.

His was a long and unique career, for he had passed his seventy-fifth milestone, and he had, as a young man, fared forth from his home on the Shetland Isles to adventure in the wilderness that was then British Columbia. Pioneer trader in the days when a solitary white man held his life in his hands when dealing with the Indians; then a master mariner, braving death amid the ice floes of Bering Straits in quest of seals; a shipping master for the Wellington Coal Company, a rancher and a legislator—such were but a few of the many roles played in the intensely active drama of the British Columbia Coast by Capt. Manson.

The sympathy of all who were privileged to know Capt. Manson will go out to his sorrowing widow and family in their hour of bereavement.

MECCA OF THE EMPIRE

When Queen Victoria selected Bytown, an obscure settlement in a hole in the bush and on the banks of the Rideau, as the capital of Canada, she reckoned not that the capital of Canada would some day become temporarily the centre of the British Empire. A week from today the quennly city of Ottawa will be the place of meeting for representatives of the British Mother Countries, of all the Dominions beyond the seas, of India (whose political status has not yet been fully defined), and of the Crown Colonies in many and remote parts of the world. Ottawa is already a historical place, for it was there that the union of the provinces of Canada was finally consummated and that the Dominion of Canada was born. Many bitter differences of political, religious and racial opinions and prejudices had to be composed or compromised before the object of the Fathers of Confederation was achieved. Yes, and many years passed before it was possible to realize that complete success had crowned the ambitions of the then leaders of Canadian public opinion.

Sceptics and scoffers, like the poor, are always with us. There were doubters and critics in the days of Sir John Macdonald and of George Brown, the most eminent of the public men who sank their personal views and ambitions in order to accomplish the federal union of Canada. There were both prominent and obscure individuals who did not believe it was possible to make permanent the new Dominion structure. There were pessimists who argued that the destiny of Canada could not be permanent union with Great Britain, because fate had decreed otherwise, fate being the physical structure of "the continent to which we belong."

It was argued that no political considerations or sentimental notions could prevent the provinces and territories of Canada from ultimately becoming states of the American union. Dr. Goldwin Smith, a former professor of Oxford, then a lecturer in an American university, but who preferred to live in Toronto, was the chief expounder of that doctrine.

Although the movement for secession and annexation was active for a time, its leaders are dust and their objects are buried with them. There is no longer any doubt about the future of Canada. That issue has been finally settled. But a still greater and more important issue will be discussed during the next two or three months at the Imperial Economic Conference. That is the future of the British Empire. Rt. Hon. Stanley Baldwin stated that issue in a sentence when he said: "As a result of the Ottawa Conference we must either be drawn closer together or drift farther apart. The words may not be exact, but we have given the purport of them. Therefore, the Conference must not be permitted to fail of its purpose. That is why Ottawa will be at least temporarily the centre and the capital of the British Empire."

Of course there are sceptics who say the Conference must fail, who declare that differences of opinion already have become so manifest that failure is inevitable. One of the sceptics is the leader of the Canadian Liberal Party, who says the Conference cannot succeed because of the obscurity of the economic views of the Premier of Canada. Mr. Bennett is an avowed protectionist, while a closer economic union of the Empire can be effected only upon the principles of preferential trade. But is there anything fundamentally incompatible between the principles of protection and the principles of preferential trade? Great Britain, for eighty years a free trade country, has definitely adopted the principles of protection, and her miraculous conversion was effected when the Prime Minister of Canada boldly stated his position at the last Imperial Conference. It was the sudden change in the policy of the Imperial Government which made preferential trade within the Empire possible. Every nation or dominion which will be represented at the Conference has adopted the principle of protection, and that is why it is eminently feasible for them to reach an agreement on the principle of Imperial preferential trade. The Conference cannot be expected to be absolutely unanimous in its views regarding the manner in which the principles of preferential trade shall be applied, but there is no reason for believing that a compromise cannot be reached and the Conference be a success.

The fact that the textile manufacturing interests of Lancashire and the textile manufacturing interests of Eastern Canada could not reach an agreement respecting a division of the Canadian market, a conflict of opinion which has been widely discussed and commented upon by the free traders of Canada, is no reason why the Conference should be a failure. The markets of Canada are not going to be divided by the interests of either England or this country. The issue will be determined by the members of the Conference, and the voice of the Prime Minister of Canada will be heard in the matter. As the French said in the crucial battle of the Great War, "They shall not pass," so say the leaders of the Imperial Economic Conference, "We shall not fail."

IRISH SITUATION

The Irish situation is either becoming more simple or more complicated. Looking at the situation from the British point of view, we might say it is becoming more simple. Looking at it from the Irish point of view, we venture to say it is becoming more complicated. We suppose the situation, whatever the point of view, must be dealt with in some way. The British appear to have decided to deal with it in the most simple and direct way and with an instrument not within the compass of the de Valera comprehension. But the lamentable feature of the situation is that the British instrument will not fall upon the head of the president of the Free State but upon the vital interests of the people of Southern Ireland.

The Irish situation is becoming clear and definite in respect of the purposes and prejudices of de Valera. The President is determined to become the chief of a republic in fact as well as in name. In pursuance of his purpose he has expressed his contempt for the representative of the British Crown and thereby has insulted the Crown through its representative. Probably his purpose was to provoke reprisals, which might have been provocative of violence and bloodshed. If such is his object, it is vain. The British Government is determined that it will not be involved in Irish turmoil, unless it should be compelled in the course of events to protect subjects of the King in Northern Ireland.

The Colonist has received a letter from the secretary of the Irish Trade Bureau in Canada, whose office is in Montreal, which sheds a bright and unexpected light upon the aims and purposes of the president of the Free State. The following is an interesting extract from a wholly interesting letter:

"There is a tendency to minimize the importance of Sinn Fein, which stands for the complete independence of all Ireland. Sinn Fein is a powerful element in support of the Free State government, as will be shown at the next election when Sinn Fein candidates may be nominated free from the previous obligation of declaring their intention to take the oath of allegiance if elected. As a temporary expedient the Free State government may decide to participate in the Ottawa Conference. But a large and ultimately preponderating body of opinion in both Northern and Southern Ireland will look to a completely independent republic as the only protector of the economic interests of Ireland. Such a republic is likely to be one of the best customers of Canada, especially in view of the development of imports of Irish coal and imports of Irish textile fabrics for manufacturing garments. Such fabrics are being imported into Canada from other countries to the extent of several million of dollars annually, and can as easily be imported from Ireland."

Thus it would appear that Mr. de Valera keeps his agents well informed regarding his purposes. One of his purposes is the temporary expedient of sending delegates to the Conference at Ottawa, whose chief end is to promote the unity of the British Empire, while de Valera's political object is to sever one of the links of Empire. This declaration should not simplify the job of organizing the Imperial Conference for the dispatch of business.

LOCAL WOMAN IN CAR CRASH

Miss Dorothy Fox Taken to Mainland Hospital Following Auto Accident

Miss Dorothy Fox, of 1138 Richardson Street, suffered minor injuries in an automobile accident near the Steveston Hospital yesterday, according to word received here from Vancouver.

The young woman was taken to the hospital, where she was treated for severe cuts about the face and hands. She was injured when the car in which she was riding skidded on the wet pavement and ran into a ditch. She was thrown against the windshield by the impact. Three other occupants of the car escaped uninjured.

Miss Fox and party had just completed a tour of the Cariboo, and were on the way to the Steveston ferry to return to Victoria when the accident occurred.

The new Nanking-Pukow Railway ferry project in China is being started under British auspices.

J. H. Beatty, M.P.P. Returns From Trip To Rotary Session

The visit which J. H. Beatty, M.P.P., has just paid to Chicago in connection with Rotary activities afforded him an opportunity to study the economic conditions that prevail there as well as in other centres in the United States. These, in his opinion, are far from affording an assurance with regard to the future in this country.

For instance, in Chicago, while he was there, it was being seriously discussed whether some of the schools in the city would be opened next term. With a refusal to open the part of large sections of the property owners to pay taxes, the situation faced is a serious one.

Mr. Beatty found that prices of goods displayed in store windows showed a most radical reduction as compared with former ones, and he quoted some of these to show something like a 50 per cent reduction being made. Real property in the city has suffered a setback of at least 40 per cent, he says. Conditions are evidently very much more upset on the American side of the line than in Canada.

PROVINCE SAVES $25,000 A YEAR

Cost of Controlling Grasshoppers Is Eliminated by Operation of Control Act of 1930

A direct saving of upwards of $25,000 a year has been made by the administration of the Grasshopper Control Act of 1930, which was sponsored through the Legislature by Hon. William Atkinson, Minister of Agriculture, and now applicable in all parts of the province where the pest had become prevalent.

In 1928 the Government expended $37,000 for grasshopper control and received no return on the amount spent. Under the 1930 act the Government advances funds out of consolidated revenue to various control committees, and these committees assess the properties protected, and the advances are returned to the treasury. This year the Government has estimated $500 for grasshopper control.

Poisoning operations have commenced in some areas, and in the Nicola district camp and established at Quilchena and Douglas. The outbreak in the Nicola district, however, is not regarded as serious as the grass is not good and the pests are not making much headway.

In the Peace River districts, the Department of Agriculture has cut worms and wire worms are creating some damage to crops, and requests have been made to the department here for information and control. W. Downes, Dominion entomologist, is forwarding instructions for control.

CHRISTMAS TREE INDUSTRY GROWS

Salt Spring Island Man Negotiating Big Contract in Evergreens for Coming Season

VANCOUVER, July 12.—British Columbia has crashed the Christmas tree industry. When the yuletide rolls around this year more than 250,000 British Columbia evergreens will be shipped to United States to brighten homes as far east as the Atlantic Coast. An agreement covering supply of the trees is now being negotiated between one of the largest dealers in United States and M. M. Lumovich, of Salt Spring Island.

Stumpage for the shipment, which will comprise approximately eighty carloads, has already been obtained in various parts of the province. Last year Mr. Lumovich shipped twenty-four carloads, or about 76,000 trees, from British Columbia, the payroll for labor employed being more than $4,000. With this year's increased volume of business more than 100 men, with a payroll of nearly $20,000, will be engaged.

WILL ENTERTAIN DELEGATES HERE

Government Making Plans to Extend Cordial Welcome to Delegates From Antipodes

Tentative plans were announced by the Provincial Government yesterday afternoon for the entertainment of the Australian and New Zealand delegates to the Imperial Economic Conference, who are expected to arrive in Victoria on Thursday.

The plans include a luncheon, or dinner, and a reception, but everything depends upon the time of the arrival of the steamer carrying the delegates from the Antipodes to this port. If suitable arrangements can be made, and the time of the delegates permits, the group will be entertained at the Empress Hotel.

The Men's Canadian Club of Victoria will join the Government in extending a cordial welcome to the visitors, and by arrangement with the Government club members will be able to attend the luncheon, as if it was a regular affair.

A meeting of the executive council was held yesterday afternoon at which the plans were discussed.

TEST AFTER TEST HAS PROVED ITS SUPERIORITY

In the world's greatest oil-testing laboratories, in intense heat, in biting cold, scientists checked the performance of the New Marvelube against other oils. In every instance it excelled. Motors developed more power, burned less gasoline, and were cleaner and in better condition after the long run. Then for thousands of miles the New Marvelube was tested in all conditions of traffic—over all types of roads. These actual road tests confirmed in every respect the laboratory evidence. The New Marvelube is decidedly a better oil. It is a purer oil, free from those troublesome compounds which cause carbon, gum and sludge to form in your engine. You can see its purity. It is clear, clean, bright golden in color. You can see through it.

The New Marvelube
[ PUREST OF MOTOR OILS ]

MADE IN CANADA BY IMPERIAL OIL LIMITED

Whether you change oil every 500 miles or every 2500 miles you will get better results with the New Marvelube. Most automobile manufacturers recommend changing oil every 500 miles because oil gets dirty in use and accumulates road grit and other injurious substances.

STUDENTS SEE OLD TELESCOPE

Recently - Formed Study Group of Astronomical Society Holds First Session

A capacity attendance at the opening meeting of the special summer study group series organized by the local centre of the Astronomical Society of Canada gave ample evidence of lively interest. The meeting was held at the home of H. Boyd Brydon, 2390 Oak Bay Avenue, where all subsequent meetings of the series will take place. P. H. Hughes, the president of the society, presided and introduced the lecturer of the evening, James Duff, of Sidney, who gave a splendid talk, in which he covered some of the fundamental points of reference which astronomers seek when attempting to locate objects in the heavens.

Following this talk the gathering repaired for a few minutes to Mr. Brydon's observatory to examine the four-inch refractor telescope, which is to be used for observing on favorable nights when the study group is meeting. This telescope, the owner explained, was one of the first four-inch instruments brought into Canada. Mr. Miller had used the telescope for nearly fifty years, and being compelled by blindness to give up his researches.

The evening was voted a great success. In addition to the regular membership of the club, the study group has admitted more than twenty young members, the youngest of whom is about seventeen years old.

On his retirement, Sir Reginald was asked by the Australian Government to visit Australia and determine its naval possibilities. Presentation of his report led to the entrance of the Commonwealth into the naval field.

ASK ARMISTICE FROM REBELS

Peace Overtures Made to Revolutionaries Holding State of Sao Paulo

RIO DE JANEIRO, July 12 (AP).—Peace overtures were made to rebels holding the State of Sao Paulo tonight as Provisional President Getulio Vargas requisitioned war materials in seven states.

Gen. Francisco Flores da Cunha, Inverventor (Governor) of Rio Grande do Sul, with other leaders, sent a message to Francisco Morato and Alvaro Arantes, leaders of the Paulista "Frente Unica" party, proposing an armistice to permit peace negotiations, said a dispatch from Porto Alegre.

Although Rio Grande do Sul was officially reported quiet, private dispatches said the rebels had captured three towns in that state. Loyal troops in Rio Grande were mobilized and awaiting marching orders, while Federal leaders and politicians of the state sought aid to handle the situation.

TO CONTROL NATION

SAO PAULO, Brazil, July 12 (AP).—With the collapse of Federal authority in the State of Sao Paulo, the revolutionary movement inaugurated Sunday emerged today as an attempt to seize control of the entire nation rather than to set up a separatist government. The sole purpose of the revolt, he asserted, was to restore constitutionality to Brazil.

Fifteen of the adults' teeth had been inset with discs of jade and hematite.

Mrs. George Black, National I.O.D.E. Delegate, Gave Interesting Views in Reporting to Municipal Branch Here Yesterday

"It would seem that just so long as the manufacture of armaments of war and munitions is in the hands of private corporations, the work of the League of Nations in the prohibition of war is a useless expense and waste of time. Even governments seem to fear to touch the question where so many millions are invested and so many thousands of men and women employed," said Mrs. George Black, wife of the Speaker of the House of Commons, Ottawa, and British Columbia's representative at the annual meeting of the National Chapter, I.O.D.E., in giving her comprehensive report of the Toronto sessions before a well-attended special meeting of Victoria I.O.D.E. members at their headquarters, Union Building, yesterday afternoon.

The foregoing excerpt from Mrs. Black's report had special reference to the text of a resolution forwarded by Mrs. Brothwood, the national secretary, to the Dominion Government, asking that Canada's representation at the World Disarmament Conference raise the question of whether it would be advisable to prohibit the manufacture of offensive armaments and munitions by private corporations.

"I am firmly of the opinion that no government, for some years at least, will try to put that resolution through, because too many people are interested in the stock of the big munitions manufacturers. An entirely new viewpoint will have to be reached before the big interests or the stockholders are willing to give in," maintained Mrs. Black, who nevertheless conceded that public opinion could in time exert much pressure along any line if consistently adhered to.

COMPREHENSIVE SURVEY

Introduced by the Victoria Municipal regent, Mrs. L. A. Genge, who presided, Mrs. Black held the close interest of her audience while she gave a cleverly condensed resume of the annual meeting of the National I.O.D.E. She, personally, had been most interested in the Echoes, League of Nations, and endowment and film committees' reports.

The Countess of Beasborough was present on the evening of the opening ceremonies, being seated on the platform with the president of the order, and reading a message of greeting.

Reports read at the meeting signified sustained interest and activity in I.O.D.E. work throughout Canada. Alberta leading all provinces in the organization of new clubs. The British Columbia report had shown that under Mrs. Bailey two new chapters were organized in this province and one disbanded, two chapters had their charters corrected, and seven new centres were approached. With Mrs. Corby the charter of the Port St. John chapter in the Peace River Block was presented by the national organizing secretary.

ECHOES REPORT

The report of The Echoes secretary, Mrs. Hugh Johnson, had shown a financial loss of more than $700 for the past year, owing chiefly to decreased advertising. Mrs. Black urged chapters to become 100 per cent subscribers to meet this, particularly as Echoes was "the only Canadian magazine or publication that could brave all propaganda contrary to Imperial ideals." In connection with the reference to the so-called depression she recalled the comment of a Vancouver friend who remembered infinitely worse social conditions rampant in Manchester in her girlhood, when hundreds of children had been thrown out by their parents to face poverty without any alleviation through the agency of Government relief. People today looked more and more to the Government for help.

Mrs. A. U. de Pencier, of Vancouver, brought much credit to British Columbia for her able report of the child welfare committee read at the National. The report of the distinguished visitors committee called attention to the peculiar position occupied by British Columbia, particularly Vancouver and Victoria, in the matter of entertaining noted guests passing to and from the Far East. Both cities had enviable reputations as hosts.

OTHER POINTS

Other points brought out by Mrs. Black in her report, by way of comment on discussions arising at the Toronto meeting, were that I.O.D.E. members should make a more general effort to inform people about the aims and objects of the order; that British films shown in Canada were increasingly popular and of better quality; and that still greater effort must be made to raise the $25,000 fund aspired to two years ago for the purpose of support to the head office.

Mrs. A. E. Hopkins, seconded by Mrs. B. T. Drake, also of Victoria, Municipal Chapter, thanked the speaker, and Mrs. Genge, the regent, presented her with a bouquet of sweet peas. Miss Cook asked for their generous share in the war memorial work of the I.O.D.E.

Viceregal Visitors Will Stay Week on Vancouver Island

Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Bessborough to Be Formally Welcomed on Arrival Here Tuesday, August 30

A FAIRLY heavy programme has already been drawn up for Their Excellencies the Governor-General and Lady Bessborough on the occasion of their forthcoming visit to Victoria and Vancouver Island for the week beginning Tuesday, August 30. Their reputed charm and popularity, coupled with the fact that it is Their Excellencies' first trip to Western Canada, attaches a special interest to the event. ### LIFE THREATENED

It was during his Indian trading days, more than half a century ago, that Capt. Manson saved his life through his quick wit and a fire insurance policy. The Indians at Cape Mudge were giving a potlatch and the young trader was present at the preliminary festivities, having delivered to them a large order of blankets, molasses and biscuits. Just as he was about to embark in a canoe for his home he was called back to the village. A man had been killed. It appeared that a big canoe had been sent to Gastown (now Vancouver) to buy liquor for the celebration. On the way back to Cape Mudge a fight developed. According to two Indians who survived, the dead man had been struck over the head by the fifth. The other two witnesses stoutly maintained that he had fallen overboard and was drowned. Mr. Manson was a justice of the peace, and the friends of the dead man demanded that he try the accused and sentence him to death. The whole camp was in a turmoil. Half the villagers insisted that the man had met an accidental death while the other half demanded vengeance.

DEMANDED ACTION

Mr. Manson hesitated. It was a situation charged with dire possibilities. A wrong move would cause bloodshed. He parleyed with the natives, insisting that without an examination by a medical man he could not determine the cause of death, as two witnesses attributed it to accident, and the others to violence. This did not suit the savage desire for quick vengeance, and after some disputing they confronted Mr. Manson with half a dozen leveled

MURDER OF HAZELMOOR

by AGATHA CHRISTIE

CHAPTER XI

"From all I've heard," Emily went on, "Aunt Jennifer is rather a wonderful person. She's got character. Still, after all, she wasn't very far away, she was only at Exeter. She might have come over to see her brother, and he might have said something nasty about her husband whom she adores, and she might have been red and snatched up a handbag and biffed him one."

"Do you really think so?" said Mr. Enderby dubiously.

"No, not really. But one never knows. Then, of course, there's Evans, Captain Trevelyan's man. He gets only £100 under the will and he seems all right. But there's again, one never knows. His wife, Mrs. Bellings, she's a nice girl. Mrs. Bellings who keeps the Three Crowns. I think I shall weep on her shoulder when I get back. She looks rather a motherly and romantic soul. I think she would be terribly sorry for me with my young man probably going to prison, and she might let slip something useful. And then, of course, there's Sittaford House. Do you know what struck me as queer?"

"No, what?"

"These people, the Willetts. The ones that took Captain Trevelyan's house furnished in the middle of Winter. It's an awfully queer thing to do."

"Yes, it is odd," agreed Mr. Enderby. "There might be something at the bottom of that—something to do with Captain Trevelyan's past life."

"That seance business was queer too," he added.

"What seance business?"

Mr. Enderby recounted it with gusto.

Emily gave a slight shiver. "I hate supernatural things," she said. "Just for once, as you say, it does look as though there was something in it. But how—how gruesome!"

"This seance business never seems very practical, does it? If the old boy could get through and say he was dead, why couldn't he say he murdered him?"

"I feel there may be a clue in Sittaford," said Emily thoughtfully.

"Yes, I think we ought to investigate there thoroughly," said En-derby. "I've hired a car and I'm starting there in about half an hour. You had better come along with me."

"I will," said Emily, rising to her feet. "It's about time we went back to the Three Crowns and I will pack my suitcase and do a short weeping act on Mrs. Bellings's shoulder."

"Don't you worry," said Mr. Enderby rather fatuously. "You leave everything to me."

"That's just what I mean to do," said Emily with a complete lack of truth. "It's so wonderful to have someone you can really rely on."

Emily Trevelyan was really a very accomplished young woman. On her return to the Three Crowns, Emily had the good fortune to run right into Mrs. Bellings in the hallway.

"Oh! Mrs. Bellings," she exclaimed. "Mrs. Bellings," she exclaimed.

"Yes, miss. By the four ten train to Exeter, miss?"

"No, I am going up to Sittaford."

"Mrs. Bellings's countenance showed the most lively curiosity."

"Yes, and I wanted to ask you if you knew of anywhere there where I could stay."

"You want to stay up there?" The curiosity was heightened.

"Yes, that is—Oh! Mrs. Bellings, there somewhere I could speak to you privately for a moment?"

With something like alacrity Mrs. Bellings led the way to her own private sanctum. A small comfortable room with a large fire burning.

"You won't tell anyone, will you?" began Emily, knowing well that of all openings on earth this one was the most certain to provoke interest and sympathy.

"No, indeed, miss, that I won't."

"The young gentleman that stayed here on Friday? And that the police have arrested?"

"Arrested? Do you mean really arrested?"

"Yes, miss. Not half an hour ago."

Emily had gone very white. "You're sure of that?"

"Oh! yes, miss. Our Amy had it from the sergeant."

"It's too awful!" said Emily. She had been expecting this but it was none the better for that. "You see, Mrs. Bellings, I—I'm engaged to him. And he didn't do it, and, oh dear, it's all too dreadful!"

And here Emily began to cry. She had announced her intentions to Enderby to do so, but what she had not said was that she was not an easy accomplishment. There was something much too real about these tears. It frightened her. She mustn't really give way. Giving way wasn't the least use to Jim. To be resolute, logical and clear-sighted—these were the qualities that were going to count in this game. Sloppy crying had never helped anyone yet.

But it was a relief all the same to let herself go. After all she had meant to cry. Crying would be an undeniable passport to Mrs. Bellings's sympathy and help. So why not have a good cry while she was about it. A real orgy of weeping in which all her troubles, doubts and unacknowledged fears might find vent and be swept away.

"There, there, my dear, don't eat take on so," said Mrs. Bellings. She put a large motherly arm round Emily's shoulders and patted her consolingly.

"Said from the start, I have, that he didn't do it. A regular nice young gentleman. A lot of chucks heads the police are, and so I've said before now. Some thieving tramp is a great deal more likely. Now, don't fret, my dear, I'll all come right, you see if it don't."

"I am so dreadfully fond of him," wailed Emily.

Dear Jim, dear, sweet, boyish, helpless, impractical Jim. So utterly to be depended on to do the wrong thing at the wrong moment. What possible chance had he against that steady, resolute Inspector Naracott?

"We must save him," she wailed. "Of course, we will. Of course, we will," Mrs. Bellings consoled her. Emily dabbed her eyes vigorously, gave one last sniff and gulp, and raising her head demanded fiercely, "Where can I stay at Sittaford?"

"Up to Sittaford? You're set on going there, my dear?"

"Yes," Emily nodded vigorously. "Well, now," Mrs. Bellings cogitated the matter. "There's only one place for me to stay. There's the big house, Sittaford House, which Captain Trevelyan built, and that's let now to a South African lady. And there's the six cottages he built, and No. 5 of them cottages has got Curtis, what used to be gardener at Sittaford House, in it, and Mrs. Curtis. She lets rooms in the Summerhouse, the captain allowed her to do so. There's nowhere else you could stay and that's a fact. There's the blacksmith's, and the post office, but Mary Hibbert, she's got six children and her sister-in-law living with her, and the blacksmith's wife she's expecting her eighth, so they won't be so much as a corner there. But, how are you going to get up to Sittaford, miss? Have you hired a car?"

"I am going to share Mr. Enderby's."

"Ah, and where will he be staying I wonder?"

"I suppose he will have to put up at Mrs. Curtis' too. Will she have room for both of us?"

"I don't know that that will look quite right for a young lady like you," said Mrs. Bellings.

"My cousin," said Emily. On no account, she felt, must a sense of propriety intervene to work against her in Mrs. Bellings's mind.

"The landlady's brow cleared. 'Well, that may be all right then,' she allowed grudgingly, 'and likely as not if you're not comfortable with Mrs. Curtis they would put you up at the big house.'"

"I'm sorry I've been such an idiot," said Emily mopping once more at her eyes.

"It's only natural, my dear. And you feel better for it."

"I do," said Emily truthfully. "I feel much better."

"A good cry and a good cup of tea—there's nothing to beat them, and a nice cup of tea you shall have at once, my dear, before you start off on your journey."

"Oh, thank you, but I don't think I really want—"

"Never mind what you want, it's what Mrs. Bellings has to offer. Mrs. Bellings rising with determination and moving towards the door. "And you tell Amelia Curtis from me that she's to look after you and see you don't fret."

"And what's more I shall keep my eyes and ears open down here," said Mrs. Bellings entering with relish into her part of the romance. "There's many a little thing that I hear that never goes to the police. And anything I do hear I'll pass on to you, miss."

"Will you really?"

"I'll send the tea up to you," said Mrs. Bellings.

She rang the bell. The chambermaid, the sympathetic sister-in-law of Constable Graves, came promptly. Emily presented her with a pound note and begged her to pass on any information she might acquire in roundabout ways from police circles. The girl promised readily.

"Mrs. Curtis' up to Sittaford? I will indeed, miss. Do you abiding that I will. We all feel for you, miss, more than I can say. All the time I keep saying to myself, 'Just fancy it! It was prescribed by Mrs. Bellings. I would be distracted—' I would. The least thing I hear I'll pass it on to you, miss, at Mrs. Curtis'."

"You angel," said Emily. Thus the centre of romantic attention, Emily left the Three Crowns having duly gulped down the cup of tea prescribed by Mrs. Bellings. "By the way," she said to Enderby, as the aged Ford sprang forward, "you are my cousin, don't forget."

"Why?"

"They've got such pure minds in the country," said Emily. "I thought it would be better. I keep saying, 'Splendid. In that case,' said Mr. Enderby rising to his opportunities. 'I had better call you Emily.'"

"All right, cousin—what's your name?"

"Charles."

Emily was rather fascinated by her first view of Sittaford. Turning off the main road about two miles from Exhampton, they went up towards a rough moorland road until they reached a village that was situated right on the edge of the moor. It consisted of a smithy, and a combined post office and sweet shop. From there they followed a lane and came to a row of newly built small granite bungalows. At the second of these the car stopped and the driver volunteered the information that this was Mrs. Curtis'.

Mrs. Curtis was a small, thin, grey-haired woman, energetic and shrewd in disposition. She has all along with the news of the murder.

"Yes, of course I can take you in, miss, and your cousin too, if he can just wait until I shift a few duds. You won't mind having your meals along of us, I don't suppose? Well, who would have believed it! Captain Trevelyan murdered and an inquest and all! This morning when the news came you could have knocked me down with a feather!"

Both Emily and Charles decided the talkative Mrs. Curtis would prove useful.

How IT STARTED

TO LEAVE NO STONE UNTURNED

Detectives investigating a crime are usually instructed to "leave no stone unturned" to find the guilty. It is our most popular way of saying "avoid no possible effort—overlook no detail—spare no pains to follow up the slightest clue that might bring results." And it comes to us from ancient Greece, its first use being found in the Heraclides of Euripides, the Athenian tragic poet who lived from 480 to 406 B.C.

However, the ultimate source of it is doubtless a century earlier, the advice given by the Delphic Oracle to Polytechnus, Tyrant of Samos, to "Turn every stone."

For having failed to stop after killing a dog near Drumcree, Ireland, James Nichol, a truck driver, was arrested and fined in a Coleridge court.

punch that at once caught the interest of theatregoers.

Director George Fitzmaurice has done a splendid job in bringing the play to the screen, and in his artistic zeal is amply aided by the magnificence of Miss Garbo's portrayal of the role of Zara, Budapest cafe entertainer who poses as the missing wife of an Italian nobleman to escape the lecherous grasp of Salter, depraved novelist.

Melvyn Douglas plays opposite Miss Garbo and registers strongly in the role of Count Bruno, brooding husband of the missing woman. Erich von Stroheim, as Salter, provides a leering menace. Owen Moore is Tony, the painter, who brings Zara to Bruno, believing her the fragile young bride, torn from her husband in war's maelstrom.

Others who score in supporting roles are Hedda Hopper, Rafaela Ottiano, Warburton Goble, Albert Conti, William Ricciardi and Roland Varno.

To Explore New Regions of Island

A PARTY of ten members of the Vancouver Island section of the Alpine Club of Canada left the city early last Saturday morning for Courtenay and the Forbidden Plateau for a ten days' camp. Entering the park via the new trail at Dove Creek, the expedition pitched camp at Circle Lake, which will be the base of operations. In charge of C. L. Harrison and Guy Shaw, numerous climbs are projected, the programme including a number of hitherto unexplored peaks, the ascent of which will be the more difficult because of the season and the lingering snows in the district. The party includes: Miss Marjorie Hadley, Miss Ermine Bass, Miss Edith Wilcox, Miss Janet Bell, Miss Kathleen Martin, C. L. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw, W. H. Warren, and Tom Goodlake. Pack ponies accompanied the expedition up to Circle Lake, where two feet of snow were found on the opening day of the camp.

ROMANO It is very seldom that

THEATRE one picture includes two internationally famed, veteran character actors in its cast, but Universal's, "The Virtuous Husband," at the Romano Theatre, includes two of the most famous on the screen, J. C. Nugent and Tully Marshall.

Both have attained world recognition in their respective, numerous character portrayals, but they have never before appeared in the same picture together.

COLUMBIA George Arliss has explained the reason for the selection of "The Man Who Played God," now at the Columbia Theatre, as his latest starring vehicle. "We had a hard time finding something to follow 'Alexander Hamilton,'" said Mr. Arliss. "We finally decided on 'The Man Who Played God.' After visiting Europe, I am inclined to think it is the only role that can trump the grandeur of an American Secretary of the Treasury."

EMPIRE The Tower of Babel holds no terror for Sari Maritza, young European film star now appearing in "Forgotten Commandments." The other day she was observed at the Paramount studios chatting with Ernst Lubitsch in German. Louis Gannier in French and William Schorr in Russian, all in a space of an hour. To add to the international flavor of the conversation, she discovered an extra player who knew the Chinese language and conversed with him. Miss Maritza was born in China and learned the language.

CAPITOL Youth presents a

THEATRE drama of a reckless young blood in "Young Bride," now showing at the Capitol Theatre. Heading the cast of the RKO-Palme production are four of the screen's most popular young players. Helen Twelvetrees, the blonde beauty who rose to fame in "Her Man" and "Millie," has the starring role. In the romantic lead opposite her is Eric Linden, young New York Theatre Guild actor who was hailed as a film find as the result of his work in "Are These Our Children?" Arliss Judge, youthful Broadway beauty who also distinguished himself in "Are These Our Children?" and Polly Walters carry the other two leading roles.

PLAYHOUSE The attraction at

THEATRE the Playhouse Theatre today is "A Dangerous Affair," a Columbia film co-starring the famous pal team of the screen, Jack Holt and Ralph Graves. The picture is a mystery thriller, treated in a somewhat humorous vein and includes among its supporting cast, Sally Blane, Susan Fleming, William V. Mong and Tyler Brooke.

NOTED FILM STAR IS ADMIRER OF NURSES

Fannie Brice as a child wanted to be a trained nurse. . . . Sang on the stage for the first time at an "amateur night" in New York and received $5 for her performance. . . . Is the wife of Billy Rose, noted writer of song lyrics. . . . Thinks the business of making people laugh is the most serious job in the world. . . . Went to Hollywood from the New York stage to make, "Be Yourself," the all-talking, all-singing United Artists picture showing at the Playhouse Theatre, tomorrow.

Just Roamin' Around

By TWO ROVERS

Of course you read our remarks in yesterday's Daily Colonist. And, if not, get a copy and then you will understand what we are driving at today.

We two rovers are still dissatisfied with the would-be portrait of us on the cliff by the sea, which, in the form of a cut, holds the place of pre-eminence at the head of our daily column.

As we intimated, we are starting a drawing competition for the youngsters, not over fourteen, whose parents, uncles or aunts, are duly enrolled as subscribers of this paper, and we are hoping that by this means we can secure a really true likeness of ourselves, to be used as a new cut to replace the affair we drew ourselves, and which irritates both Rover and his bone-provider.

There will be a prize for the young artist who in the opinion of the judge, who in this case will be Rover himself, and the nature of the prize will be stated anon, as we cannot give a limousine to a young lady of four, for instance, or a duplicate of the Provincial Parliament Buildings to a youth of fourteen, but that will be all arranged in the course of the next few days.

IN THE MEANTIME

The drawing to decide whose drawing wins the winsome prize, which will be a surprise, will not take place until the week before the first of September, so there is plenty of time, that is, there is time to become eligible by taking The Colonist daily and sharpening your pencils and wiping your pen-points and borrowing the drawing paper from your nearest, if not your dearest, friend, if he or she has any.

On next Sunday we will epitomize the rules and regulations that will govern this black and white competition, so be sure, you artistic youngsters, to read The Daily Colonist now and then and in between times. I can tell you this right now, that what Rover considers will make the best cut for the top of our column will get the first prize, the next best will get the next best prize, and the worst of the best three will get the prize that is not quite so good as the best and next best prizes.

TO CHANGE THE SUBJECT

We were sitting at our typewriting machine the other afternoon when we distinctly heard a faint, gentle and subdued knock on our kennel door. You see, we had placed a notice there to intimate to anyone who desired to see us that it would please us extremely if they would "Knock Gently." We do so hate a loud bang on the door to suddenly tear us rudely away from our meditations, or inspirations, or dreamy introspections, so we put that sign up to prevent one or two of our visitors from hammering as if the world was coming to an end and they were in a hurry to get under cover.

The charming visitor, like her tender "tai-lai" on our door, was trebly welcome, and her modest request we shall endeavor to fulfill in

ORANGEMEN HOLD ANNUAL PARADE

Rain Causes Postponement of Usual Programme of Sports to Celebrate Anniversary

NORTH VANCOUVER, July 12.—Several hundred men and women members of the Loyal Orange Lodges of Greater Vancouver, Victoria and the Lower Mainland paraded through a drizzling rain from North Vancouver ferry wharf to the drill hall at Mahon Park for their annual celebration today.

The programme of sports which was to have been carried out was postponed until the Black Knights of Ireland celebration in August.

At the drill hall the members were welcomed by Frank Wilson, of Vancouver, grand master, and following luncheon were officially welcomed to the city by Mayor E. H. Bridgman.

Among the many veteran Orangemen attending the celebration is Frank "Sticks" Allison, for thirty-three years keeper of the Cowichan Gap (Porter Pass) Lighthouse.

It is forty-five years since he first attended a twelfth of July celebration but, with the exception of two occasions when he was at sea, he has not missed a single anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne.

That Body of Yours

By James W. Barton, M.D.

COLONIC IRRIGATIONS—WASHING OUT LARGE BOWEL

You are hearing and reading about colonic irrigations and may be wondering how they differ from the enema or old-fashioned injection.

The enema or injection is allowing one or two quarts of warm water to flow up into the lower bowel by having the bag or container two or three feet higher than where the tube enters the lower bowel. The object of the enema is simply to induce a movement of the wastes from the bowel.

The lower bowel is called the colon and colonic irrigation means irrigating or washing out the lower bowel. Before colonic irrigation is begun an enema is given to induce bowel movement, the irrigation is then used to wash out material lying farther up the bowel, and to wash the wall of the bowel as high up as the water will reach.

Dr. Walter A. Bastedo describes the methods used in colonic irrigation, one method being the use of one tube, which allows the water to go up into the bowel and return through the same tube, and another, the two-tube method, where the water goes up one tube and returns by the other.

Plain warm water, about the temperature of the body, is the liquid used, and as much as six or more gallons is used at one time. Instead of using a long tube or long tubes, Dr. Bastedo recommends that the tube be inserted only about six or eight inches. The water is allowed to flow very slowly; with the first gallon the patient lies on his side with knees drawn up, after that the patient lies on his back.

In what kind of cases is colonic irrigation used?

It is used in many cases where there is poison in the system remaining after the cause of the infection—in teeth, tonsils, gall bladder—has been removed, such as rheumatism, neuritis, intestinal putrefaction, anaemia and other run-down conditions.

There can be no harm result from colonic irrigations given properly; they remove abnormal mucus and clean the intestinal wall, leave the colon more or less empty, and thus exert a beneficial effect on its blood supply and tone.

While colonic irrigations may be readily given in the home, they should be given by someone trained in this work.

EXPLANATION FOR YESTERDAY'S RIPLEY CARTOON
The Magic of Figures—There is only one possible arrangement in a magic square of the third order. Already the square of the next order (4 by 4) can be transformed 4,352 different ways. The number of possible variations in a magic square 5 by 5 is 28,800. There are 363,916,800 possible ways of arranging the figures from 1 to 49 to form a magic square of the 7th order.
From here on the possibilities of transforming the magic squares of a higher order increase in an astounding ratio. Hugel, the German mathematician, has undertaken the stupendous task of calculating all the possible arrangements of the figures from 1 to 169 in a magic square of the 13th order. According to his findings the paper required for the printing of all the possible combinations would cover the surface of the earth 348 times.

Trotted Two Miles with a Broken Leg—Although she was suffering from a clear fracture of the pelvic bone, Nedda Guy, three-year-old trotting star of the 1931 season, trotted the first heat of the Hamiltonian Stakes at Goshen, N.Y., 1931, in 2:05 1/4 to finish fifth, and then, even though considerably more lame, returned for the second heat and cut her time to 2:03 1/4 to finish second, only a quarter of a second slower than the best time of Calumet Butler, the winner of the race.

Nedda Guy was then so lame she had to be withdrawn and assisted off the track. When examination disclosed the fracture she was to suffer the usual fate of seriously injured racing horses, but her owner, Walter Cox, gave her such excellent care that she is now in sound condition and an outstanding contender for honors in the four-year-old division.

The Horsepower Paradox—Horsepower is an arbitrary unit for measuring energy. It was evolved by Watt, who based it upon his observation of the work of draft horses in a London brewery. It is defined as the energy required to lift a pound of 33,000 pounds out of a hole one foot deep, in one minute. It does not represent the maximum effort of which a horse may be capable. In 1924 a light team of horses, belonging to an Iowa farmer, made a traction pull equaling the effort necessary to lift 32,500 pounds out of a hole one foot deep for a distance of 27 1/2 feet. Either horse thus developed more than 13 1/2 horsepower in the test.

The feat of the Iowa team is a world's record. Please address all queries to Cartoonist Ripley, c/o King Features, New York City, N.Y.

Dominion Representatives Win Prized Kolapore Trophy by 21 Points From Motherland—Jersey Third—Score One of Finest at Long Range in Many Years—Start King's Prize Today

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 12 (CP).—Canada today scored her first major victory at the great National Rifle Association meeting, capturing the historic Kolapore Cup from the defenders, the Mother Country, by 21 points.

Canada lost this great trophy to the Mother Country two years ago, and last year failed by four scant points to recover it. Today she picked Canadian team of eight marksmen, led by Lieutenant

Major Dixon, of the Northumberland Fusiliers, won The Three silver trophy in the shoot-off with eighteen other marksmen, including five Canadians. A. E. Evans, of Esquimalt, finished first of the Canadians in the shoot-off, placing sixth and winning $25.

Corporal Norton, of the Queen's Westminster, won the Wimbledon Service Cup in the tie shoot-off. C.M. Enslie, of Toronto, who led the Canadians in the match with 49 out of 80, placed fourth to win $20.

The Alexandra Challenge Cup, fired for the service rifles at 300 and 600 yards, was the chief individual event today, but the best the Canadians could do was 67 out of a possible 70. Three of them—Lieut. Burke, Lieut. Mooney, of Winnipeg, and Lieut. Matchett—had this total.

Burke and Matchett tied for fifteenth place to win $15 each, while Mooney came twenty-third, winning $6.

Prizes in the Stock Exchange aggregate were announced today, with Lieut. Burke placing fifth and winning $25.

Canadian scoring in the Alexandra Challenge Cup match, possible at each distance 35, follows:

Yards
Lt. Desmond Burke, Ottawa, 32 30-67
Lt. G. A. Mooney, Winnipeg, 32 30-67
Lt. G. E. Matchett, Hamilton, 32 30-67
Lt. Lucas, Toronto, 32 30-66
Capt. R. Kerr, Toronto, 32 30-66
C.M. H. Bask, Ottawa, 32 30-66
St. Alec Parnell, Verdun, Que., 31 30-65
Lt. R. G. Enslie, Toronto, 32 30-64
Capt. G. A. Herrin, Ottawa, 32 30-64
C.M. H. Burton, Calgary, 31 30-63
Lt. J. T. Downer, Saint John, 32 30-63
Capt. J. W. Houlden, Sherbrooke, 32 31-63
Lt. R. G. Enslie, Toronto, 32 31-62
Lt. J. N. Dow, Saint John, 31 31-62
Lt. T. A. Jensen, Innisfail, Alta., 31 31-62
St. F. P. Parker, Saint John, 32 30-61
St. F. V. Shepherd, Ottawa, 32 30-61
A. E. Evans, Esquimalt, 32 30-60
Major F. Richardson, Victoria, 30 27-57 *Attached member.

The result was as follows:

Canada 1,123
Mother Country 1,102
Jersey 1,079
Guernsey 1,077
India 1,070

GREAT ACHIEVEMENT

It was the greatest Canadian achievement at the National Rifle Association's big Empire meeting since 1930, when Canada won the Mackinnon Cup, which she will attack Thursday.

The last ten years have been rather lean ones for Canadian marksmen at Bisley, but 1932 promises to be a Canadian triumph.

Tomorrow, bolstered by the magnificent win in the Kolapore, the Canadians go individually into the first stage of the King's Prize, the blue ribbon of marksmanship. There will be well over a thousand competitors, and the first stage will reduce the entry to the 300 highest scorers. These go into Friday's second stage, which cuts the field down to 100 for the third and most severe shoot Saturday, which winds up the meeting.

The Rajah of Kolapore's Imperial Challenge Cup ran along with the Mackinnon Cup, the two being by far the greatest team shoots for the service rifle soldier-marksmen of the Empire. The Kolapore team first offered in 1871 and the Canadians captured it the following year. Today's was the fourteenth Canadian win in the long series. It was also sweetened by the National Rifle Association's special $250 prize for the team—exclusive of the Mother Country—having the highest aggregate.

One of the brightest features of the Canadian victory was the great display of Lieutenant Desmond Burke, who won the King's Prize in 1924 and who was unsuccessful in a tie shoot-off with a fellow Canadian, Lieutenant-Colonel R. M. Blair, of Vancouver, three years ago. Burke today had 146 out of a possible 150 in the Kolapore, including a possible 50 at the first distance.

TEAM SCORES

The Kolapore Cup shoot was for teams of eight, each man firing ten shots at each distance—300, 500 and 600 yards. The team scoring was as follows:

Yards
Canada 300 500 600 Total
Canada 378 378 368-1,123
Mother Country 376 376 350-1,102
Jersey 357 363 357-1,079
Guernsey 358 373 346-1,077
India 358 368 344-1,070

One of the youngest men ever to make the Canadian Rifle team, Lieut. R. A. Sweet, of Hamilton, amply proved the wisdom of his selection on the special Kolapore team. He had 144 out of 150, a score only exceeded by Burke's 146. Altogether the Canadian team of 1,123 was the finest recorded by any except Canadian teams in the Kolapore for the past ten years. Canada herself excelled this total in winning in 1927.

The individual Canadian shooting in the Kolapore Cup:

Yards
Lt. Desmond Burke, Ottawa 50 67 45-118
Lt. G. A. Mooney, Winnipeg 48 65 49-162
Lt. G. E. Matchett, Hamilton 48 65 49-162
Lt. Lucas, Toronto 48 65 49-162
Capt. R. Kerr, Toronto 48 65 49-162
C.M. H. Bask, Ottawa 48 65 49-162
St. Alec Parnell, Verdun, Que. 48 65 49-162
Lt. R. G. Enslie, Toronto 48 65 49-162
Capt. G. A. Herrin, Ottawa 48 65 49-162

AUSTRALIAN SHOWS FORM IN PRACTICE

Boy Charlton Expected to Win 1,500-Metre Swim at Olympic Games

LOS ANGELES, July 12.—Boy Charlton, Australian free-style swimmer, is creating the big splash at the Olympic swim stadium, where stars from Australia, Argentina, Sweden, New Zealand, India, Philippines, and other nations are building up condition for the 1932 games, July 30 to August 14.

Frank Beaurepaire, thrice a member of Australia's Olympic team and an authority on swimming, looked Boy over and predicted he would win the 1,500-metre event in record time.

"He has been correcting a few faults and is swimming higher out of the water now," said Beaurepaire, "so that he has cut eight seconds off of each 100-metre lap in the 1,500-metre race. He will win the event and set a new record."

A. J. Elliott, New Zealand sprinter, was unofficially timed in 10 1/8 seconds for the 100 metres and 1 1/2 for 50 yards.

Elliott, used to grass courses, is finding greater speed possible because of the solid clay tracks of California.

India's field hockey team—stronger than the one which won the world's championship in 1928—sought a first-class hockey team to practise with, but found no opponents suitable for training purposes.

WILL FINANCE MISS FRIZELL

VANCOUVER, July 12.—Mae Frizell, star Vancouver sprinter, whom the Olympic committee decided would be given a place on the Canadian team if private funds were forthcoming for her expenses to Los Angeles, has found admirers who have offered to supply the necessary money.

Tonight, three Vancouver men were prepared to guarantee her expenses, and the swim star will race at the Olympic Games under the emblem of the Maple Leaf.

In the recent Canadian trials at Hamilton, Ont., Miss Frizell won both her heats in the 100 metres, but failed to place in the final. Her backers are certain her past performances warrant her appearance at Los Angeles, and a goodly sum to cover expenses will be provided.

Names of the men providing the funds are being withheld at present.

B.C. FOOTBALL FINAL GAME HERE TOMORROW

Scene of Crucial Game Is Switched To Local Grounds

Secretary J. M. Richardson of B.C. Body Orders North Shore United to Clash With Saanich Thistles at Royal Athletic Park—McMillan to Handle Fixture

Flooded ground conditions and difficulty in operating the floodlights at the Athletic Park in Vancouver during rainy weather conditions made Secretary J. M. Richardson, of the British Columbia football body, change the scene of the Saanich Thistles-North Shore United final in the provincial series in the Comnaught Cup competition to the Royal Athletic Park here, tomorrow evening, at 6:15 o'clock. This announcement came from the Mainland yesterday, and means that Victorians, for the first time in many years, will witness a British Columbia play-off in such a series. Dave McMillan, popular Victoria referee, has been chosen to handle the fixture.

The winning eleven will clash with the Edmonton Canadian Legion, Alberta champions, on Saturday and Monday, in Victoria or Vancouver, according to who survives tomorrow night's crucial tussle. The reason for the change of the game from Vancouver to Victoria is that the provincial titleholders are to play the final game, according to the ruling of the Dominion Football Association.

Meets Nenoff Tomorrow

ERNIE ARTHUR
THE CANADIAN PANTHER

Ernie Arthur and Steve Nenoff, Bulgarian champion, have been matched for a return bout to a finish at the Tillicum gymnasium. The pair met last week, Arthur winning by a foul in the last round after a rough and exciting bout. In the semi-final Bobby Bylund, Minneapolis, will tackle Rocky Brooks, Victoria, in a mixed schedule to go five eight-minute rounds.

LOCAL LINE-UP
Tommy Bridges, veteran goalie, will attend to his old duties against the strong Mainland squad, while Wes Harper and Sammy Essler, two fine kickers and reliable backs, will be in front of him. Harper and Essler have proved to be a stone wall to opposing forwards in recent contests and are expected to bolster the front rank of the North Shore eleven. Ronnie Williams, Eddie Vigness and Alex Speller should form a powerful intermediate rank, while Howard Williams will look after the right wing; Chuck Chapman will flank him on the inside position, with the hustling Barney Burns at centre forward. Art Chapman will look after the other inside position, and Morgan will patrol the left wing. The line-up of the North Shore is not known, but they are expected to bring the same squad which put Kerrisdale out of the running last week by a 5-2 score.

VICTORIA MARKSMAN SHOOT BRILLIANTLY TO WIN COMPETITION

While close competition marked the opening match, the marksmen found the rain too much in the afternoon and scores were decidedly lower. One of the largest entries for the meet has been received this year, which should insure some fine shooting during the remainder of the week. Those who were tied in the Westminster shoot will probably decide the cup winner tomorrow.

Fisher, of Vancouver, secured 101 for secondary honors, while Mrs. Hugo Raymond, the only woman participating, who is attached to the Canadian Scottish Regiment, was third with an even 100.

In the tyre match, shot at 200 yards with the McDonald Brier competition, first place honors went to Regimental Sergeant-Major A. Goodson, of the B.C. Regiment, of Vancouver, with a 38. Second and third money went to Cadet Ian Drum, of R.M.C., and Mrs. Hugo Raymond, shooting for the Canadian Scottish Regiment, respectively, who each had 33's.

SCOTTISH SUCCESSFUL

The Canadian Scottish team, which competed in the B.C. Electric team match for five-men teams, was successful in aggregating 481 out of 525 to win the match. The team from the Seaforth Regiment, of Vancouver, won second place, with the Vancouver Regiment and the Fifth B.C. Coast Brigade tying for third.

A feature of the opening day was the performance of Mrs. Hugo Raymond, first woman marksman to take part in a competition at Heals Range. Mrs. Raymond was successful in winning third place in the McDonald Brier No. 1 match, against expert shots of the province, and also was third in

Pirates Turn Back Dodgers in 12th as Cubs Defeat Braves

Pittsburgh Clings to Small Lead in National League Race by Close Victory—Yanks Come Through as Athletics Suffer Setback

NATIONAL LEAGUE
PITTSBURGH, July 12.—The Pirates called on a couple of substitutes, Dave Barber and Gus Dugas, to put the finishing touches on Brooklyn in a tense twelve-inning struggle today, 8-7.

The pair were filling in for the Wagon brothers, who had been forced by minor injuries to quit their outfield posts early in the contest.

One was out when Barber faced Cy Moore in the twelfth, and he rattled a single into right field. Dugas followed him with a drive to right center that went for three bases and settled the issue.

Johnny Frederick's pinch home run in the first of the ninth sent the game into extra innings. Bill Harris, who relieved Heinie Meise, hurried the last five innings to receive credit for the victory.

Brooklyn—Clark, Moore and Lopez; Melne, Harris and Grace.

SAFE IS STOLEN AT LADYSMITH

Burglars Get Away With Office Records but No Money

LADYSMITH, July 12.—The premises of the Vancouver Milling & Grain Company were broken into during the early hours of Sunday morning, probably just after midnight of Saturday, and the entire steel safe was removed together with the contents.

According to Mr. Dunmore, manager of the branch office and warehouse here, there was no money or negotiable paper in the safe, but the office records and books were inside.

The safe, which is one of the smaller type, has vanished entirely, and the police have not yet located it. At the same time the burglars had apparently attempted to enter the premises of the Cornfield Motors, which are beside the Milling & Grain Company's office, without success.

The affair marks the first attempt of the kind in Ladysmith for some years.

PROTEST ADDED GASOLINE PRICE

Nanaimo City Council Also Complains Government Relief Is Inadequate

NANAIMO, July 12.—At the regular meeting of the local council last evening the following motion passed unanimously:

"That this council go on record as vigorously protesting against the recent increase in the price of gasoline, for which there appears to be no justification at the present time."

"Further, that we endorse the action of the Provincial Government in asking for an inquiry by the Dominion Government into this matter."

IMPOSSIBLE PRICE
Alderman Drake said there were several ways of looking at the increase in price of gasoline, but one of them was sufficient. At the present price it was absolutely impossible for the major portion of people in this town to buy it, and it meant that some of the gas stations were closed.

Dedicate Legion Memorial

MEMORIAL Gate at Mayne Island, erected by the Gulf Islands Branch of the Canadian Legion, B.E.S.L., and recently dedicated. Major (Rev.) W. Barton (7th Battalion C.E.F.) is reading the service, supported by Rev. R. D. Porter, C.Y.M.C.A. General Sir Percy Lake, K.C.B., K.C.M.G., life member of the Dominion executive council of the Canadian Legion, is seen near the memorial. The branch president, Richard Hall, is close to the flagstaff, and Major Guy Boyer is nearest to the camera.

tion operators would be put out of business and forced upon relief.

The report of Reeve Crouch, Saanich, of the meeting between a committee of the U.B.C.M. and the Government, was, on motion of Alderman Dixon, received and the action of the committee endorsed.

Alderman Kerr, speaking to the motion, said he thought the action of the committee should be endorsed in not accepting the schedule of relief and protesting its inadequacy. He said orders in regard to relief were coming from the Government with the regularity of mail order catalogues. How the Government expected a family to live on $20 per month was beyond his understanding. It most certainly meant they would be unable to pay taxes, which meant more burdens falling upon the municipalities.

FREE FROM DISEASE
Dr. Drysdale, medical health officer, reports that the city at present is free from all infectious quarantined diseases.

Supplementary warrants for June, of $10,398.50, and for July, $14,705.50, were passed.

SHAWNIGAN HAS SCHOOL MEETING

SHAWNIGAN LAKE, July 12.—The annual school meeting of ratepayers was held in the school here on Saturday evening. R. P. Weber was elected chairman for the meeting, and S. J. Heald secretary. The school register showed a total enrollment of seventy-five for the year, with an average attendance of sixty-one. The health officer's report showed "reasonably good progress."

Mr. Lendrum's resignation as principal was received, and A. H. Plows was engaged. There is to be no increase in salaries. J. C. Rathbone was the retiring trustee. Mr. Weber was elected. The trustees remaining in office are Mrs. A. Dyson and Mr. S. J. Heald. The trustees were authorized to investigate sites for a new school and to report at the annual meeting next year.

Votes of thanks were moved for the Women's Institute, I.O.D.E., and officers of the Girl Guides, Brownies and Cubs, also to trustees and auditor. The financial statement showed a balance in the bank of $960. G. S. Gibson was appointed auditor.

The trustees met at the close of the meeting, and elected Mr. Weber chairman, and Mr. Heald secretary-treasurer of the board.

In one secret society in England there are 21,618 members over seventy years of age, 3,772 over eighty, and 106 over ninety.

DUNCAN GAY WITH BLOOM

Opening Day of Sweet Pea Festival Gives Evidence of Marked Success

DUNCAN, July 12.—The first day of the Duncan sweet pea festival was a marked success. The streets were gay with gorgeous blooms massed in bowls on sawn logs, arranged for the day by the Cowichan Chapter, I.O.D.E. Flags and colored lights and shop windows filled with sweet peas gave a festive air to the town.

The horticultural branch of the Agricultural Society, under the sponsorship of F. B. Carberry, had massed blooms in the windows of the Agricultural Hall. One window held a beautiful display of delphiniums arranged by Mrs. Sheridan Rice, A. W. Johnston assisting. Another was filled with roses by Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Henniker and R. M. Palmer is giving a windowful of his wonderful lilies for display today.

A window attracting much attention was that of the Island Drug Co., which held the Crossland blooms. Eight sweet peas on a single stem, seven on another, were noted, while for size of bloom and variety of color this showing was unsurpassed.

SCOUT JAMBOREE
The Scout and Guide jamboree in the evening attracted over eight hundred people. A lively bear bag competition was won by the Duncan Cubs from a patrol of Scouts.

Quamichan Troop gave a clever display of rope spinning; the First Cowichan Guides were most attractive in their folk dances; Duncan Wolf Cubs gave the dance of the serpent and did the cub exercises; Quamichan Troop of Scouts put on an amusing "The King of Caracacus," and the Duncan Troop repeated their famous "Solving the Donkhor Problem."

The display of tumbling by the Second Nanaimo Troop was one of the best features of the show, while a novel and interesting feature was added to the night's entertainment by the Chemainus Troop of Japanese Scouts, who erected a bridge on the grounds strong enough to hold fourteen boys.

CHERRY CROP IS BADLY DAMAGED

Ladysmith Growers Suffer Loss From Heavy Rain—Later Varieties in Good Condition

LADYSMITH, July 12.—For the second year in succession, the famous Bing cherries of the Ladysmith district have suffered almost hopeless damage by heavy rains in the first days of July.

Out of a prospective crop of more than ten tons of Bing cherries, one half has been salvaged only a few pounds of perfect cherries fit for packing in cartons. Every local grower reports only a minute percentage of marketable Bings saved. In several of the orchards, with continued favorable weather, the bulk of the later Bings may partially save the situation, while most of the Lambert and in fair shape. Royal Annes and Republicans are not affected to any extent, but these do not represent Ladysmith's favored market crop.

Unusually early rain also caused considerable damage to the local strawberry crop, but the bulk of this was successfully marketed. The failure of the Bing crop involves a loss of several thousands of dollars to the growers of the district.

TO PETITION FOR MORE ASSISTANCE

NANAIMO, July 12.—At a meeting of Departure Bay residents it was decided that a petition be sent to the Provincial Government for increased financial assistance for school purposes. Discussion took place regarding recent legislation, which makes districts responsible for half of rural school expenses. A suggestion was made that the school be closed as also discussed.

A proposal that the lady teacher's salary of $900 a year be reduced was tabled until the result of a meeting of Cedar district residents is learned. The Departure Bay School is one of the oldest on Vancouver Island, and has in attendance thirteen to twenty-three pupils.
